EDITED BY 1955 SENIOR CLASS

DANVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
DANVILLE, INDIANA

DEDICATION

Because of her untiring devotion to our school, and the deep respect in which she is held, we, the Class of 1955, wish to dedicate this annual to Mrs. Kathryn Armstrong.

Through the years we have known her, she has helped us realize our ambitions and hopes. When we were faced with problems, she unerringly guided us to a better understanding. With this dedication goes an expression of our gratitude.

THE LAST TRAIL

Yes, for we whose high school education is close to terminating, it is indeed the last trail. In looking back over the other eleven trails, we realize that the path of learning has been difficult.

There have been mountains to climb, rivers to cross, and enemy tribes to capture members of our own tribe. Yet, while we were trudging up those hills and slipping down the valleys, we became aware that the most treasured events of our whole lifetime have taken place on the various trails. Many new and everlasting friendships have been made along the way, and to these and others who have made our journey successful and enjoyable we would like to share this our last and most exciting adventure. So won't you join us now as we go walking down through the pages of our Last Trail?
